

Amsterdam (The Netherlands), October 2011

Subject: Invitation for first U.S. Divorce Hotel

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Kutcher,

We understand that life in the public eye comes with extreme pressure, and that even for those not under the media spotlight divorce is incredibly stressful and trying for husband, wife, and any other family members. We know that for exceptionally successful professionals such as yourselves, moving on with your busy lives and professional careers is a top priority, and we have seen your steadfast commitment to your work obligations throughout the process so far.

On behalf of myself and my entire staff at the Divorce Hotel, I would like to extend an invitation to be the first guests at the soon-to-open U.S. five-star accommodation of your choice. Divorce Hotel is committed to reducing all stressors related to the divorce process, which can be lengthy and exorbitantly costly. We alleviate these issues and execute clean, cost-effective divorces in as few as two and a half days by streamlining the process with an on-site team of attorneys, counselors, and mediators. No divorce program is more efficient and accommodating than ours, and we've seen great success at our Holland Divorce Hotel location due to our strict application process and superior expert staff. Contrary to popular belief, a successful divorce is actually a team effort, allowing both parties to start a new chapter in their lives with the lowest possible expenditure of time, money, and emotional energy.

I am confident that we can help you best navigate this turbulent time and move on enthusiastically to the next step in each of your lives. Please accept this as an open invitation to be our first stateside guests at Divorce Hotel.

We look forward to welcoming you,

Jim Halfens

Managing Director
DivorceHotel.com